10. [ ] BRIEFING Jerome Levinson, Counsel, Subcommittee on Multinational Corporations, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called to set up a briefing with Maurice Ernst, OER, on the

[ ] explaining that this was a suggestion of [ ] of NSA, whom Levinson had recently met with on this same subject. Levinson said he would like Karin Lissakers, of the Subcommittee staff, to accompany him. I told Levinson we would check into this and be back in touch.

[ ] OCI, was advised.

11. [ ] BRIEFING Pat Holt, Chief of Staff, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called and said the Committee would like to receive a briefing from the Agency and the Department of State on Africa on Wednesday, 29 October at 10:00. Holt said that this would not be a joint CIA/State briefing. Holt felt that the briefing would last only an hour. I confirmed with Holt that the Committee was basically interested in Southern Africa but that it is possible that some of the senators might ask questions about Northern Africa, such as Morocco and Spanish Sahara.

12. [ ] LIAISON Talked to Jim Wilson, Technical Consultant, House Science and Technology Committee, explaining that we had not been in touch with the Committee for some time because of the press of other business but that we had not forgotten them. Wilson thanked me for the consideration and asked us to review our holdings to determine if we might have something of interest to report to the Subcommittee on Space Science & Applications chaired by Representative Don Fuqua (D., Fla.).

13. [ ] LIAISON Called Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, and raised with him the problem of the Select Committees asking for our memoranda for the record or transcripts of committee briefings. He agreed that we could provide the prepared statements of the Director but not the transcripts or the memoranda.

14. [ ] LEGISLATION Bob Carlstrom, OMB, called to say that OMB would clear our report on S. 3170, the Congressional Right to Information Act, provided that a few changes were made. I told him I thought the changes were unnecessary and that I would call him back tomorrow.

15. [REDACTED] INTELLIGENCE BRIEFING Jack Brady, House International Relations Committee staff, called and requested a briefing for himself and Jack Sullivan, of the Committee staff, on Friday, 10:00 a.m., on the subject of Indochina. He asked that all countries be included. I told him this would be arranged. [REDACTED] was advised.

[REDACTED] will see Brady on Friday morning.

16. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Guy McConnell, Clerk, Senate Appropriations Committee, and told him of the existence of a leak of the "Taylor Report" as well as the hold down on it. He said the hold down "doesn't bother me." I alerted him to the annex of the Congressional Checklist and explained the source situation to him.

I then told McConnell about the requests we have received from the Select Committees for copies of Memoranda for the Record of Committee briefings. He agreed with me that we could give copies of the statements prepared for the Director's use but not the memoranda.

I then discussed with McConnell our reclama letter on the budget and said I had suggested the Director see Senators Roman Hruska (R., Nebr.) and Milton Young (R., N. Dak.). McConnell said if we saw them, he thought we should see Senator John Pastore (D., R. I.) and the other members of the Committee also. He said if we go up and say "save this program and cut others" we could lose all the programs. He strongly recommended against doing it that way.

17. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Jane McMullen, in Guy McConnell's, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, office; Kal, in Frank Slatinshek's, House Armed Services Committee, office; Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee; Elly, in Pat Holt's, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, office; and Jack Brady, House International Relations Committee, and advised them that we had received a report through a special system that Generalissimo Franco had died. I said this system has not always been accurate though and we were doublechecking the accuracy of the report.
